

Relationships

I know there are people that are special to us and we know different ways to show we care for each other.

I know there are many different kinds of family groups.

I know there are different characteristics of friendships including kindness, loyalty and respect.

I know there are many ways of resolving friendship issues eg: talking to a trusted adult.

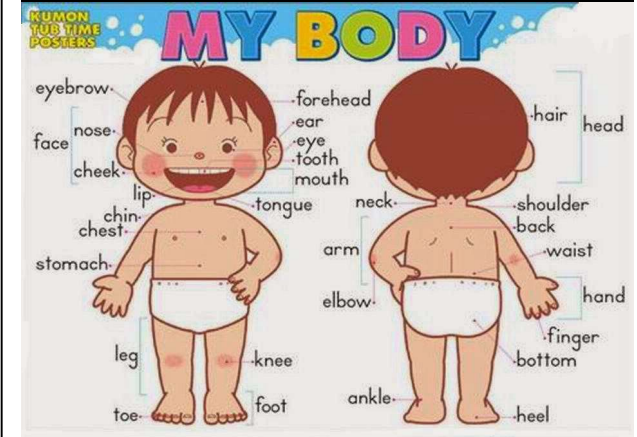

I know how to recognise and deal with bullying.

Bullying

Repeated behaviour intended to hurt someone emotionally or physically

I can use the correct names for body parts.

Including external genitalia:

Penis	Male external private parts
Testicles	Male external private parts
Vulva	Female external private parts
Anus	Proper word for bottom

I can understand our similarities and differences.

Stereotype	A fixed idea about a group of people
Identity	What makes you, you!
