

Victorian toys can still be popular today. The type of toys children could have would depend on their family. If their family was rich, a child could have nicer toys. If their family was poor, many toys were handmade or made from cheap materials.

Toys Past and Present

Many toys are electronic now. Tablets can have lots of games for children to play on.

These toys were made 100 years apart! The teddy bear and toy cars were both invented around 120 years ago and are still popular today.
