

Key words

activist	A person who tries to make an important change.
civil rights	The rights for people to have freedom and equality.
climate change	Changes in temperature and weather around the world.
global warming	The warming of the planet's temperature.
protest	To show your unhappiness with something.
rights	Being allowed to do or have something.
suffragettes	Women who tried to get the right to vote through protests.

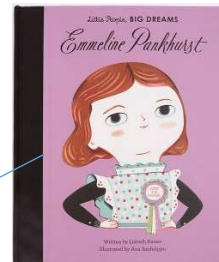

Rosa Parks

Rosa Parks was arrested in America for refusing to give up her seat on a bus for a white man. She became a civil rights activist who fought for the rights of people of colour and who wanted everyone to be equal.

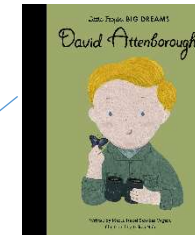

Astonishing Activists

Enquiry Question:
Who changed the world the most?

Emmeline Pankhurst

Emmeline Pankhurst was a suffragette. Women were not allowed to vote for important matters, so Emmeline and the other suffragettes protested and argued until women were finally given the right to vote just like men.

David Attenborough

David Attenborough has been trying to make people see how important climate change is and that global warming is becoming a real problem. He has been trying to encourage other people to make changes in their lives to help the planet.

